NEW BUSINESS

A. Request by Elizabeth and David Drouillard

Mr. and Mrs. Drouillard own the historic resource at 5871 Hilmore. They presented construction drawings and explained their plan to install four new basement windows and a walkout door to the basement of their home. All of these modifications will be made to previous additions to the original historic structure. In addition, the modifications provide safe egress from the lower level, which is being remodeled as a family room. The Drouillards have selected materials that enhance the style of the home.

OLD BUSINESS

A. Updates on 36551 Dequindre and 4820 Livernois

Loraine reported that the Museum office has received calls from realtors who have listed these resources and want information regarding the process to de-list. Loraine referred then to Chapter 13 of the City Ordinance and the Historic District Study Committee.

B. Update CLG

Recently the City of Birmingham was designated a Certified Local Government. The Commission was supplied copies of that city's historic preservation ordinance for review.

C. Update Home Plaques

The committee will continue working with Whitehall Products to fabricate home plaques.

The Troy Historic District Commission Meeting was adjourned at 8:48 PM. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, October 17, 2006 at 7:30 p.m. at City Hall in Conference Room C.
